

The MedLine with Full Text and CINAHL with Full Text databases allow you to search by topic within the entire databases, by topic within specific publications, or search for specific articles within publications. To assist you in exploring the services that EBSCOhost offers, below are step-by-step instructions on searching within specific publications.

Conducting a Topic Search

Instructions:

- 1) Once logged in, choose which database you would like to search (can choose both if you would like to expand the search) and click “Continue”:

2) Enter key words to search (follow instructions in diagram below):

The screenshot shows the EBSCOhost search interface. The search bar contains the text "pressure ulcer" and "assessment" and "tools" with "and" operators. A dropdown menu is open, showing search fields: "Select a Field (optional)", "TX All Text", "AU Author", "TI Title", "SU Subject Terms", "SO Source", "AB Abstract", and "IS ISSN". The "Search" button is highlighted. The interface includes a navigation bar with "New Search", "Subjects", "Publications", "Images", and "More". The top right corner says "HOLY CROSS HOSPITAL". The bottom section has "Limit your results" with checkboxes for "Full Text", "Abstract Available", "Peer Reviewed", and "Clinical Queries". There are also fields for "Author", "English Language", and "Journal Subset".

a. Enter keywords (can enter multiple words)

b. Can specify where to search (i.e. All Text, Author Name, Article Title, Publication Name, etc.)

c. Can add more rows as needed (to search for more keywords)

d. Click "Search" to run the search

- 3) Search Results: Can narrow results with instructions in diagram below. If full text (pdf) of article is available, there will be a pdf icon for you to click on. If full text is not available but you wish to obtain the article, contact the Learning Center at (954) 776-3267 or via e-mail at learning.center@holy-cross.com to submit an article request.

The screenshot displays the EBSCOhost search results page for the query "TX pressure ulcer and TX assessment and TX tools". The interface includes a search bar at the top, navigation links, and a sidebar for narrowing results. The main content area shows three search results, each with a PDF icon indicating full-text availability. The right sidebar offers options to limit results by full text, references, and abstracts, and to filter by publication date.

a. Narrow results by choosing type(s) of source, major subject heading, publication name, etc.

b. Narrow results by adjusting to most recent dates, full text only, etc., and click "update results."

4) "Exit" when finished

The screenshot shows the EBSCOhost Advanced Search interface in Microsoft Internet Explorer. The browser title is "EBSCOhost: Advanced Search - Microsoft Internet Explorer provided by Holy Cross Health Ministries". The address bar shows a URL starting with "http://web.ebscohost.com/ehost/search?". The search bar contains the text "CINAHL with Full Text, Show all" and "Choose Databases". There are three search input fields, each with a dropdown menu for "Select a Field (optional)". A red box highlights the "Exit" button in the top right corner, with a red arrow pointing to it. A text box with a red border contains the instruction "Click 'Exit' when finished searching".
